THURSDAY MORNING, DEC 3, 1863

The Treasonable Purpose.

Many men are so constituted as to be unable to see anything beyond what is close to their eyes, or but a small part of what actually exists. Of this class are most of the Northern opponents of the war. They think the rebellion is a sort of party contest, and in some way, they don't exactly know how, a new form of Democratic development. They have always been Democrats, and their old leaders tell them that their course is all right. The wing of the party now led by Jeff. Davis, it is declared, is only asserting and defending its constitutional rights, which would have been invaded, if there had been no rebellion. Old prejudices of every sort are appealed to, the true object of the rebels is carefully concealed, a restored Union and peace are promised, and so men are persuaded to put themselves in a posture of opposition to the Government, and the interests of the country, and to give aid and encouragement to the traitors.

All this is only because they will not look at the actual facts, and ultimate purposes of the rebels. These are plain enough to those who choose to see them; a man who shuts his eyes cannot perceive the sun at noon day, and no one will see the object of the rebellion, who persists in allowing his passions, dislikes or personal aims, or the falsehoods and promises of conspirators utterly to blind his mental vision. Slavery is but part of the object the traitors have in view. That alone could not have caused the war, for they knew very well that they held political power enough to give it security for many years to come; they wanted to rule the Republic—if they could not do so, they determined to ruin it, for they hated it with bitter intensity.

They are striving simply to destroy democracy—to blast all hopes of universal human liberty, and the possibility of its defence and triumph. If they succeed in the South, they will then try to accomplish the same result in the North, and by the same agencies, which are now working for them. Will Democrats any longer, blindly allow themselves to be made the tools of despotism—the means by which the Republic may be shaken from its foundations of Union and Liberty, while bloody treason is allowed to grow up and flourish in its stead?

The Puget Sound Mail.

We have received a letter from A. R. Burbank, Esq., Postmaster at Monticello, in regard to the delays on the route to the Sound, the substance of which we quote, not having room for the entire letter. He says he has not given out the mail before 1 P. M., the schedule time, nor has the carrier, Mr. Winson, left before that hour, but has frequently waited for the Portland boat, from half an hour to an hour—that the boat has never sent the mail forward to overtake the carrier, though on one occasion an effort was made by the boat to have some one carry it, but there were no mail bags in the office proper to send.

The schedule arrival for the Boat line is 12 M.; departure, 1 P. M.—always has been the latter—but I give out the mail at 8 A. M., until reply from the Department, as to amendment of schedule.

At the request of the Boat line I asked the Department to grant a new schedule, say to depart 7 A. M. from Monticello, but they refused, but giving a schedule shortening the time from Portland here. A new application for amendment of schedule was again forwarded.

The public should keep in mind that the Astoria and Monticello route terminates here. Therefore, the Department will arrange schedules so as to connect with said route.

The Boat line having been much favored by this office, I deem complaint from them unkind and unjust. The Stage line having received little or no favors. The mails failing to connect from Portland to Olympia, is caused by the Boat line not arriving within time.

Mr. Burbank states that the fault is not on the part of the Stage line, or of the Monticello office. It will, however, be observed that he admits that he has changed the schedule time, without waiting until his application to the department was answered. We don't know who is in fault, but we do know that the present arrangement is mischievous.

RECRUITING ON PUGET SOUND.—First Lieut. Jas. E. D. Jester, of Co. "K," W. T. Infantry, stationed at Steilacoom, who has been for the past few weeks engaged on professional duties at Fort Vancouver, leaves on the steamship Oregon for the Sound, to-morrow. After attending a court-martial of general prisoners, to convene next week at Steilacoom, Lieut. J. is ordered to Port Townsend to recruit men for service in "K" Company. Owing to the disposition of all the forces raised below for service elsewhere, the completion of our post investments must depend, for the present at least, upon the volunteers who may enlist during the winter months. The bounty inducements held out are great, and a fine opportunity is now presented for loyal men to be serviceable, not only to their country but to themselves. "K" Co. is well officered and located at a comfortable and pleasant post.

COSTLY ANIMALS.—We are informed by S. N. Arrigoni, Esq., who came up from below yesterday, that the passage money of the nine elk recently shipped hence for Italy, by Count Castiglione, from San Francisco to New York amounts to $2,250, or $250 per head. They are to be accompanied by the Count, who is expected to leave San Francisco for Panama on the steamer of to-day.

EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to November 26.

NEW YORK, Nov 25.—A Washington [illegible] correspondent of the Post says [illegible] in conformity with the views of the War Department, in determining on the employment of colored troops, the Government became bound by the highest moral obligations to give our soldiers of that description every guarantee that they should be protected and not treated in any respect unlike other [illegible] in the service. The rebel authorities [illegible] of [illegible] were placed in the field [illegible] their purpose of treating [illegible] when captured to their several State authorities to be punished under their State laws as criminals engaged in stirring slaves to insurrection, and [illegible] into slavery the colored troops they might [illegible] at [illegible] their hands. The rebels have rigidly carried out this threat formally promulgated in a message by Jeff Davis. It will be recollected that thus far nothing whatever has been ascertained of the fate of such of our officers and men, being colored troops, as were captured at Milliken's Bend, Charleston and Sabine Pass. It also [illegible] the rebel authorities have them in secret dungeons, not having pretended to bring them to a public trial under State laws. But the impression is irresistible that they have been murdered. It is also certain that our colored soldiers captured by them shared the same fate, or have been reduced to slavery—the latter most probably. The War Department seem to be firm on this point, that they will not consent to a further exchange of prisoners until it is made general, including all Union soldiers who have been captured. The President agrees with the War Department.

An army of the Potomac letter says an order has been issued immediately to shoot all guerrillas as soon as captured.

The county canvassers to-day decided that McCunn was elected Judge of the Superior Court.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Advices received by Government show a little more confidence in Burnside's ability to hold out. It is published here that Gen. Thomas's army is on the move, and Longstreet may find troops in his rear before he can be successful beside Burnside, which will compel him to retreat or run the risk of being cut off.

Advices received from the Army of the Potomac to-night say that deserters come into our lines almost hourly. The most intelligent and probably well informed estimate of Lee's effective strength is from 50,000 to 60,000 men. A person in high connection with the rebels says that Lee is hourly in expectation of an attack by Gen. Meade, and is prepared at every point to give him a terrible reception. The permanent and temporary rebel works on the Rapidan are being strengthened and enlarged to a vast extent.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—Private advices received here to-day announce Burnside's successful retreat to Knoxville. Longstreet and the rebel army pressing him hard. Severe fighting took place on Friday and Saturday. Reinforcements had reached Burnside from Grant. The safety of Burnside was not doubted, while the capture or dispersion of the enemy was regarded as certain by those claiming to be posted.

The retreat of Bragg to Atlanta is not believed in military circles here. He may, however, have fallen back a few miles from his late position to draw Grant out of his fortifications. A battle between Bragg and Grant is imminent and may take place at any hour. The enemy is strongly reinforced. A desperate struggle will be made to regain possession of East Tennessee and Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.—There is nothing additional from Gen. Burnside. Cannonading at last accounts was still heard, and a battle is anticipated between Grant and Bragg to-day. A special despatch to the Commercial, dated Chattanooga, says deserters last night reported the rebels as falling back to Chickamauga station. Their artillery has been withdrawn from our front, and their whole army is apparently in retreat. A reconnoissance this afternoon revealed the enemy apparently in force between us and Missionary Ridge. Gen. Wood, in charging up to Orchard Ridge, carried the rebel rifle pits under severe musketry and artillery fire, taking 200 prisoners. We now hold all the high ground on this side of Missionary Ridge. Our troops are in line of battle, and will lie on their arms to-night. Hard fighting is inevitable to-morrow unless the rebels withdraw to-night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—It is understood that Gen. Sigel is to take Gen. Schenck's place in command of Baltimore, after the latter takes his seat in the House of Representatives.

The Star of this afternoon contains the following account of a brilliant preliminary movement made by Gen. Thomas, at Chattanooga, on the 23d. The reconnoissance in force by Gen. Thomas has been completed in the most brilliant and successful manner. The object of the movement was to ascertain the strength of the enemy, also to occupy and hold the knobs of our left halfway between our lines and Missionary Ridge. The principal attack was made by Gen. Hazen's brigade, supported on the left by Gen. Willich's brigade and on the right by the whole division. The entire field was visible from Fort Wood, where Hazen's line of battle was formed, the field being commanded by the heavy guns of the fort. But one field battery was taken into action; this was planted on an elevated knoll in the centre, which Sheridan's line of battle formed before. The order to advance being given the troops moved out to their positions at 1 o'clock P. M., and remained in line for three quarters of an hour in full view of the enemy. When everything was ready, orders to advance were given, and Generals Hazen and Willich pushed out simultaneously. The first shot was fired at 2 P. M., and in five minutes the lines of Gen. Hazen were hotly engaged, while the artillery of Fort Wood opened upon the rebel rifle pits and camps behind the line. The firing practice of our gunners was splendid, but elicited no reply. It was soon evident that the rebels had no heavy artillery in that part of their entrenchments. Our troops, rapidly advancing as if on parade, occupied the knolls upon which the rebels were, and in a few moments later Gen. Willich, driving across the open field, carried the rifle pits in his front, whose occupants fled. Gen. Sheridan moving through the forest which spread before him drove in the rebel pickets, and halted his advance in obedience to orders. We have taken 200 prisoners, and gained a position of great importance. Should the rebels still attempt to hold the Chattanooga valley, with the heights in our possession, a column could turn Missionary Ridge, which is secure from flank artillery.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 24.—The Richmond Whig, of the 21st, has the following:

MISSIONARY RIDGE, Nov. 19.—To Gen. Cooper.—Gen. Wheeler reports an attack upon and dispersion of the enemy, our cavalry pursuing them into the wood at Knoxville, capturing 400 prisoners. Our infantry force was close up. B. BRAGG, Gen.

Charleston, Nov. 20.—The enemy renewed fire on the city this morning at 11 o'clock. At 1 o'clock the number of shells thrown was sixteen. The shelling of Fort Sumter has been heavier than usual with mortars. But few rifled shots were fired. There were no casualties either in the city or fort.

Mobile, Nov. 19.—A letter received from a member of Gen. Green's staff announces the defeat of two Yankee columns in Louisiana. Gen. Franklin's division encountered a portion of Gen. Dick Taylor's army under Gen. Green, near Alexandria, on the 5th, and after a stubborn fight the Yankees were routed, with the loss of their stores and 1,000 prisoners. Gen. Weitzel's division is reported to have been routed by Gen. Dick Taylor, near Opelousas. The expedition is said to be abandoned. A portion of the troops have returned to Port Hudson and Baton Rouge.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A special despatch to the Times, dated Washington, the 24th, says: The latest news, up to 10:40 this evening, from the front is most satisfactory—Thomas and Sherman have got well ahead. The fighting in our immediate front lasted all day. At every point along the line we have forced the rebels backward.

News from the Army of the Potomac comes up to 3 P. M. Absent officers may be interested to know that several changes of position of the army corps have been made. Fredericksburg Heights are held by one division of Ewell's corps, which is on the extreme right of the rebel army. Lee's corps is on the left and rests near Madison Court-house, on this side the Rapidan. His force is mostly cavalry. The rebel army seems to have no faith at all that we will advance before May next, for they are manifestly preparing winter quarters near Gordonsville. At present they are stretched from that place to some point on the Richmond and Fredericksburg road, probably Hanover Junction.

The World's despatch dated Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, November [illegible], says: No change has yet been made. All quiet along the Rapidan, and our brilliant expectations of an advance [illegible] as yet unrealized. It rained all day, and this may have delayed an advance. Army here in own [illegible] [illegible] that in the case of a well known commissary official a court of inquiry will probably be ordered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The Herald has the following, Washington, November [illegible]—Midnight—The War Department received this evening a despatch from [illegible] at Chattanooga, which is of a most [illegible] character. The engagement in the [illegible] account of the commencement of which we yesterday received, has continued [illegible] throughout the entire day. The rebels although [illegible] resisting our advance have been gradually giving way. There is nothing further from Burnside. [illegible] success of this movement is expected to relieve him from the pressure [illegible]—Grant's advance compelling them to retreat [illegible] prevent their capture or destruction.

The Herald has the following from the Army of the Potomac, November 24: Ere this can reach you we shall probably have fought a severe battle or [illegible] perhaps, both. As military movements are always subject to delays and contingencies, it would not be proper to enter into any details of this part of the campaign. Everybody is hopeful and confident of success. Meade's plans are well matured. Though they do not come up fully with the [illegible] I have heard expressed, they are [illegible] but could be [illegible] keeping in view the necessity [illegible] enjoined by the authorities at the War Office of covering Washington.

—A Knoxville letter of the 19th to the Tribune states that most of the 11th and 1st Kentucky cavalry, stationed at Maysville, have been surprised and captured by the rebels. It also states that the rebels made an attack on Rockville, another on Lenoir, and that demonstrations of a rebel advance are made also from Rogersville. Longstreet, with Chatham, Stevenson and others, are reported to be in command of the rebel troops.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25th.—Official dispatches from Grant and Thomas, dated Chattanooga, Nov. 24th, state that on 23d Palmer's, Granger's and Howard's corps carried the first line of rifle pits between Chattanooga and the creek, Chickamauga, and captured three officers and 100 men. Our loss was 100.

To-day, Hooker, with Geary's and Osterhaus's division and two brigades of the 14th corps, carried the north slope of Lookout Mountain. The enemy's loss is about 500. Our loss small.

There has been continuous fighting from 12 M. till after [illegible] We repulsed the enemy's attempts to retake the position.

Sherman crossed at 10 A. M. this morning at the mouth of the south Chickamauga, with three divisions of the 15th corps, and one division of the 14th, and carried the northern extremity of Missionary Ridge. Our success so far is complete. The troops from Lookout Valley carried and now hold, the eastern slope of the Mountain and points higher up. Hooker reports 2,000 prisoners taken.

The Star has the following from Chattanooga, dated November 25th: Gen. Bragg evacuated the summit of Lookout Mountain last night. Our troops now occupy that position. Bragg still holds the rifle pits at the base of Missionary ridge.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Star says we have positive and reliable intelligence from Burnside at Knoxville up to noon of the 23rd—24 hours later than previously received. Burnside still holds his position without loss, and also kept open and intact all his communication. Everything looks favorable.

The following dispatches have just been received:

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 25.—We are victorious. The enemy is routed. Our loss is small; the enemy's heavy in prisoners. The enemy evacuated Lookout Mountain during the night, and Hooker occupied it this morning. Hooker is said to have captured 2000 in the assault on Lookout Mountain.

Gen. Sherman attacked the enemy on Missionary ridge this morning, and gained at that portion of the line a complete victory. Gen. Course's brigade led the assault. Course was repulsed with heavy loss and was himself wounded in the thigh. The second assault was made at 1:30 P. M. Mathias', Loomis and Raum's brigades, were engaged. They had nearly reached the summit of the hill, and the enemy's works, when the rebels being flanked and broken, retired. Mathias was wounded. Col. Putnam, of the 93d Ohio, was killed.

The enemy being compelled to protect their right heavily, General Grant attacked their weakened center, and after an hour's hard fighting broke it, and gained possession of the Ridge. The main force of the enemy was driven north, toward Sherman, who forced them to break up and flee across the Chickamauga. We have taken not less than 5,000 prisoners, and perhaps as many as 10,000. Hooker will probably intercept the flying enemy in the vicinity of Rossville. It is reported that we have taken a whole corps.

Among the casualties are Lieut. Col. Espy, 68th Ind.; Maj. McCawly, 10th Iowa; Col. Omars and Lieut. Col. Thrat, 9th Illinois; Maj. Waller, 10th Missouri; Maj. Welch, 56th Illinois; Col. Jones, 6th Iowa, wounded; Maj. Irwin, 6th Iowa, killed. The list of the killed and wounded cannot be ascertained as most of the killed were in Sherman's corps, and remained at dark in the hands of the enemy.

Prisoners say that Bragg was on the Ridge just before it was taken. The successful storming parties consisted of Hooker's and Baird's Division on the left center, Johnson's and Sheridan's on the right center. Some of our wounded were left in the hands of the enemy, after Sheridan's unsuccessful assault, but were ultimately recovered.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 25—10 P. M.—The captured artillery is reported to be about forty pieces. Hooker captured five boxes of new muskets on Lookout Mountain. Our forces have entire possession of the field, and full control of the Railroad and the river to Bridgeport. Our loss will not amount to over 300 killed and 2,500 wounded. In the three days operations our success has been most brilliant. The enemy is reported to be bivouacking about two miles beyond Missionary Ridge. Col. Phelps, of the 15th Ohio, and Major Glass, of the 32d Indiana, were killed. Gen. John C. Smith is reported wounded.

BOSTON, Nov. 25.—The transport steamer Forest City, from Charleston on Thursday noon, has arrived and reports a vigorous cannonade going on from Forts Gregg and Wagner, which had continued without intermission night and day for several days. It seemed more brisk than on Thursday. The fire was directed against Sumter and Moultrie. The U. S. steamers Pawnee and Marblehead were up Stono river on Thursday. The Marblehead was engaged in shelling the woods, it being stated that the rebels had batteries concealed at that point.

Thursday next being a day of thanksgiving and prayer, it was rumored that at 2 o'clock on that day Gen. Gillmore was to open a bombardment on the city of Charleston.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A Knoxville letter of the 19th to the Tribune states that most of the 11th and 1st Kentucky cavalry, stationed at Maysville, have been surprised and captured by the rebels. It also states that the rebels made an attack on Rockville, another on Lenoir, and that demonstrations of a rebel advance are made also from Rogersville.

Longstreet, with Chatham, Stevenson and others are reported to be in command of the rebel troops.

The rebel force which attacked Maysville and drove in our pickets upon Rockville has fallen back and Col. Wolford is reported to be upon their track. The enemy, satisfied with their plunder and the eclat they have obtained, have retired and there is again a comparative calm. The people are more scared than hurt. Precautionary measures have been taken, forces distributed and everything done to check a further advance of the rebels in that direction. The whole number lost in prisoners is estimated at not over 100. All is quiet along the lines.

Money steady and active at 7 per cent. Sterling dull and lower, at 163½. Gold dull and decidedly lower—opened at 149½, declining to 146½, and closing quiet at 147⅞. Government securities quiet and firm.

CAIRO, Nov. 27th.—Late accounts from the Arkansas river represent that region as subject to frequent incursions of conscription squads, who seize men and carry them off. The citizens are compelled to band together for mutual protection. This state of affairs renders the efforts of planters to gather in their crops futile. The amount of cotton gathered, compared with the amount grown, is small.

Gen. Price's force is represented as small and decreasing. There is no prospect of a forward movement on his part for some time.

Late advices from Hale's Point, 14 miles north of Memphis, represent that there is great excitement among people in that region in consequence of a wholesale conscription being made for the rebel army. It is reported that a large rebel force is being raised in the vicinity of Woodville, Lauderdale Co., for the purpose of sweeping the country of every man capable of bearing arms. People are leaving their houses and flying in all directions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26th.—The only information from the Army of the Potomac last night is that all is quiet. Nothing of a public character was going on. The roads were still in a bad condition.

[illegible] parties who recently left the Valley we learn that the enemy, in considerable force, with six pieces of artillery, had appeared at Woodstock, Shenandoah county, in the early part of the week. The force was believed to have been up [illegible] Averill, and not entered the Valley through Hardy county. They captured our pickets at Narrow Pass, about five miles this [illegible] It is apprehended that this [illegible] movement up the Valley for Winchester or Harrisonburg.

[illegible] northern Virginia say that matters are entirely quiet.

On Wednesday a portion of Gen. Hampton's division captured the greater portion of a Vermont regiment of cavalry in the neighborhood of Stevensburg, Culpepper county, with large number of horses, wagons and equipments. A report current [illegible] with this statement says that they also captured pieces of the enemy's [Federal] artillery. This lacks confirmation.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 26.—Bragg's retreat from his position of last night was perfect rout. Sheridan reached Chickamauga station at 4 o'clock this morning, and captured 500 prisoners, four guns and a number of [illegible] The enemy attempted to burn the bridge [illegible] partly succeeded. He burned the depot and all the stores at Chickamauga.

Sherman crossed the Chickamauga in the afternoon. Hooker was reported at Ringgold at [illegible]

The captured [illegible] enormous, showing the rebel army [illegible] The number of cannon captured thus far is reported at 52, including the celebrated Loomis battery, lost at Chickamauga.

Sherman's loss is much less than previously estimated, and will not exceed 500.

Nearly 6,000 prisoners have been reported.

Breckinridge's son and Major W[illegible] (his chief of staff) have been brought in. Breckinridge himself narrowly escaped. A strong column is in pursuit of the enemy. It is not improbable that another disastrous defeat will be visited upon him.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 26th.—The Journal's special dispatch from Chattanooga of the 25th says that our camp fires last night were blazing along the crest of the whole range for a distance of [illegible] miles. Bragg was expected to withdraw under cover of night. A drive [illegible] Bragg was in [illegible] but little to cover the Knoxville railroad. It is believed that he will not have [illegible] further battle. Our army is eager to [illegible] enthusiasm and eager to pursue. Prisoners report the rebel army terribly demoralized and incapable of offering serious resistance, and that Bragg will fall back on Atlanta. Gen. Brannan occupies Tunnel Hill, which completes our line along the whole length of Missionary Ridge.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP OREGON.—The steamer Oregon, Capt. Conner, arrived at the mouth of the Willamette yesterday morning, where, owing to her draught of water, she anchored, and sent forward her passengers and express matter to this city by a river boat. She has on board three hundred tons freight for this port, and two hundred tons for British Columbia. Her cargo for this place will all be landed to-day. We are indebted to Purser Wyman for newspaper favors, and also for memoranda and list of passengers. They are annexed.

MEMORANDA.—Steamship Oregon, Francis Connor, Commander, left San Francisco November 27th, at 5 P. M.; crossed the Columbia river Bar December 1st, at 8 A. M.; arrived at the mouth of the Willamette river on the [illegible] at [illegible] P. M. On the [illegible] at 1 A. M., in Woody Island [illegible] met [illegible] engine [illegible] been an American, but she [illegible]

PASSENGERS.—S. N. Arrigoni, Dr. F. M. Ringgold, K. [illegible] E. Brevman, B. Bach, Mrs. Aubert and daughter, [illegible] Webster, H. Clark, J. F. Miles, M. L. Potts, J. A. [illegible] Mrs. Armstrong, B. Belcher, Miss Gleeson, C. Schot, Martin, J. Schefflan, Miss M. Newman, Mrs. B. Hawes, [illegible] Epperson, J. Schmidt, Mrs. Spangler, J. Smith and [illegible], J. Burns and wife, Mrs. Pratt and children, J. G. [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Messenger, and 34 others [illegible] tons freight.

STARTLING RUMOR.—There was an on dit yesterday to the effect that two genteelly got up "sports," each with a young girl of 14 or 15 years old, had forcibly occupied rooms at the house of a colored woman in this city the night previous and left on the boat yesterday morning for the upper country. We were unable to elicit such a reliable statement as would warrant the publication of details. Too many instances of seduction and ruin are fresh within the memories of our citizens to render any direct allusion to special parallels necessary, but we submit that a community seemingly defenceless against the encroachments of open vice and shame faced licentiousness, should exercise the most diligent watchfulness over its youth whose passions ripen in advance of their judgement. In the absence of competent legal, let there be a most efficient parental restraint over the conduct and associations of our too often tempted school-girls.

THE SIERRA NEVADA, we are informed by Purser Wyman, has been drawn for the winter from the Northern route, to meet the demand for a larger steamer in the trade between California and ports on the Mexican coast. The Oregon being regarded as ample in point of means for our Northern winter requirements, the routes and officers have been exchanged.

SAILING OF THE OREGON.—This steamship is advertised to sail for Victoria and San Francisco to-morrow afternoon. The steamer Julia, Capt. Van Bergen, will leave Couch's wharf, with freight, passengers and treasure, at precisely two o'clock, and the Oregon will leave as soon as they can be transferred.

THE Wilson G. Hunt, last evening, brought down only twenty five passengers, there being no connection above the Dalles. Mr. [illegible], Wells F. & Co.'s Express Messenger, had a very small gold freight—some seven or eight thousand dollars.

BUYING HORSES.—Messrs. Greathouse & Kelley, proprietors of the stage line between Walla Walla and Bannock, are now in this city purchasing heavy stage teams for service next season. They will have abundant use for quite a large number.

ABUNDANT READING.—If any one wishes to know what is going on in the rest of the world, or to see good representations of the recent battles, &c., it is easy to be gratified at S. J. McCormick's, where for a few bits, papers can be purchased, which cannot fail to meet all reasonable desires.

PICTORIALS AGAIN.—Mr. Barrett has a fine supply of picture papers, as well as the news from the States and Europe, just received by steamer.

CORRECTED TELEGRAMS.—We republish, this morning, a portion of our yesterday's dispatches, corrected from the California papers.

THANKS—to Wells, Fargo & Co., for newspaper and Express favors per steamer Oregon.

ANOTHER CHIEF DISPOSED OF.—Jacksonville papers report that Skookum John, a noted Indian desperado was killed last week at the Klamath Fort in the following manner. An order was sent to Capt. Kelly by Col. Drew for his arrest, and the Captain, on receiving it at once called on Lieut. Waite and several non-commissioned officers to procure their pistols, as he required their assistance alone in making the arrest. They found John in an Indian camp, close by the fort. He was called to one side, and the Captain addressing him, said: "I have come to arrest you, sir." John at once attempted to draw his revolver, but, quick as flash, the soldierly Captain sent a bullet through his breast. The savage staggered, but still desperately essayed to draw his weapon, when Sergeant Underwood gave him a shot in the head that brought him down, and another shot from a third person stretched him bleeding and dying upon the ground, but even then nervously grasping the death dealing revolver. The Sentinel says:

Skookum John was one of the most noble looking, intelligent, and daring Indians on this coast. He has been a terror to his own tribe. While they all hated him, [illegible] them so cowed that they dared not [illegible] to kill him. La Lake, chief of the tribe, and John's uncle, [illegible] the chief Indian of the five who murdered the Ledford party, and all Indians questioned on the subject corroborate that statement. He [illegible] a blood thirsty advocate of war, but had [illegible] influence with his tribe, because of [illegible] murderous cruelty to any one of them who incurred [illegible] He would leave his own tribe and [illegible] Modocs whenever emigrants were expected. Old Mary says he secured a buckskin bag full of gold and silver watches, towards [illegible] by those murdering and thieving expeditions.

The news of the killing of Skookum John was received with a general exclamation of joy by our people. [illegible] the [illegible] him who has met a violent retribution [illegible] the diabolical murder of five confiding [illegible] white men. The fifth and last is still at large. Detter's Hair Restorative.

Lewiston, Sept 3d 1863

This is to certify that I have used DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE and I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a SAFE and EFFECTUAL PREPARATION for the restoration of the Hair. I was nearly bald when I commenced the use of it and after using two bottles I find it has produced a fine healthy growth of hair and that too in less than two months. I can heartily recommend it for its great virtues in [illegible]

HOW WASHOE MINES ARE MANAGED.—The Bulletin publishes the following letter, which explains some of the wonderful speculations that we read of: it is only one of many thousand instances of similar fraud:

I read a few days ago, while absent from San Francisco, your account of a promising mine, and I propose to narrate my experience of another equally promising, which you may give to your readers provided always you are not afraid of incurring another libel suit. I will premise by saying that I never was and I am not now, a 'feet' man. With the exception of my ownership in the very 'promising' mine I am about to speak of, I never was interested in mines or mining.

The 'Sheba' mine is situated in Humboldt District, Nevada Territory, I believe nearly 200 miles from Virginia City. It was first opened about eighteen months since, and put into stock or feet at only $1,800,000—that being the price of 1,800 feet at $1,000 a foot. A Board of Trustees were appointed, who at the time of their organization owned nearly the entire stock. The President was an elegant, good looking gentleman, with a salary of $5,000 per annum; what he did for the money has never yet been discovered. A Superintendent was sent to the mine, who soon commenced a series of most flourishing and glowing reports as to the richness of the mine and the quantity of metal in sight. Under the influence of these reports the stock rose in the market from about $50 to $500 per foot. A well meaning but mistaken friend, who supposed that he was, in 'feet' parlance, on the inside, and who was allowed to read the daily reports received from the "very able" Superintendent, advised me to buy. I invested my little pile in 10 feet of the 'promising' mine at $480 per foot. Very soon I discovered that although not one of the Directors would openly sell a foot, yet various trasfers were being made on the books of the company, by which the ownership of most of them was considerably diminished.

The reports from the mine continued to be all that the most sanguine or discontented stockholders could reasonably expect, but the better the reports the faster the Directors who were really on the inside, sold, until with, I believe, two exceptions, a new Board had to be appointed, because the old hands had all sold out. Stock about this time went down to $250 per foot.

The new Board men were mostly new purchasers at high figures; they began to smell a mouse; a new Superintendent was appointed who was known to be capable and honest; men on the inside sold fast and furious; new Superintendent arrives at the mine—makes a report—stock falls to $80 per foot.

New men make a survey; find indebtedness of the company on a note drawing 2 per cent per month $25,000; other indebtedness considerable, and have levied assessments to the extent of $30 per foot.

Please inform me if you know of any "promising" mine where I can invest and get the amount of my loss on the Sheba.

THE KISSING DEACON.—In one of our New England towns lived Deacon Brown, a staid, dignified sort of a Christian, and model of propriety. Deacon Brown had the misfortune to lose his wife, and at the age of forty found himself with a family of four small children, without a mistress to his farm house. As he could not immediately take another, and avoid exciting scandal, and could not get along without some one to take charge of the kitchen and nursery, he had recourse to employing a young woman as housemaid. Nancy Sterns was a laughing, romping beauty, who delighted in experimenting on the Deacon by way of testing the strength of human nature. For a long time the Deacon was invulnerable, but at last, in a moment of unguarded weakness, he was led into temptation, and into committing a "slight indiscretion" with his beautiful housemaid. When in his wonted coolness and presence of mind, he was horrified at the enormity of his sin. In vain he repented and grieved over lost virtue.

Finally, as a last effort for easing his conscience, at the conclusion of the services on the following Sabbath morning, he arose and requested the forbearance of the brethren and sisters a few moments when he electrified them by making the following confession:

"My Christian friends, you all know that I lost my dear wife some months ago, (sobs and tears,) and that Nancy Sterns has been keeping house for me, and you know that I have a little child not a year old. Well, this little child would cry in the night, and it would be a long time before I could quiet it, and last Tuesday night—God forgive me!—the child cried so hard that Nancy arose and came into the room, and leaned over the bed to hush the child—and, brothers and sisters, her leaning over me made me forget Christ!"

Here the worthy Deacon broke down entirely, and stood weeping, wailing and blowing his nose.

"What did you do?" sternly demanded the minister.

"I—I—I ki—ssed her!" stammered out the Deacon, between his sobs, "but I have been very sorry about it, and prayed to be forgiven—and I want you to forgive me and pray for me, brothers and sisters."

As the Deacon bowed himself upon his seat like the mighty oak before the tornado, Deacon Goodfellow arose, and astonished the audience still more, by saying:

"Brothers and sisters, you have heard what brother Brown has said, and now he wants our forgiveness. For my part, I think brother Brown is truly penitent, and I am willing to forgive him with my whole heart. And, brothers and sisters, I will add still further that if I had no wife, and a pretty girl like Nancy Sterns should come to my room, and lean over my bed, and lean over me, I'd kiss her and abide the consequences."

AN IMPRESSIVE VERDICT.—A newly elected justice in one of our suburban precincts, visited the city lately for the purpose of observing the manner of conducting business in order that he might dispense justice with becoming dignity and impressiveness. A capital trial was in progress, and our Solon was deeply affected by the closing sentence passed upon the prisoner. He started home resolved that he would give those who attended his court an idea of the awful majesty of the law when properly administered.

The first case submitted to his adjudication was a matter of account in which a balance of three shillings was found due the plaintiff.

"Let the defendant stand up," said the Justice in a tone of great solemnity, "and listen."

"The sentence of this Court is that the defendant pay the plaintiff three shillings and costs of this suit, and may God Almighty have mercy on your soul!"

A COSTLY TOILET.—Many express surprise and do not see how even the most extravagant and gay women of France manage to spend so much money. Here is an item that opens one's eyes. The Jolies Dramatiques attracted throngs last winter to see Mademoiselle Duverges in La Dame aux Camelias. In the "scene at the ball" her attire cost $180,000—yes, one hundred and eighty thousand dollars! A single diamond in one of the camelias of her head dress was worth $20,000. Her bathing tub was of solid silver. Her wash basin, and every article on her wash stand, was of solid gold.

THE BIGGEST WONDER.—"Well," said a Yankee proudly to a traveling Scot as they stood by the Falls of Niagara, "is not that wonderful? In your country you never saw anything like that."

"Like that!" quoth the latter. "There's a far mair wonderful concern no twa miles frae whaur I was born."

"Indeed," says Jonathan, "and pray what kind of a concern may it be?"

"Why, mon," replied the other, "its a peacock wi' a wooden leg!"

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachic and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
